

CLEAN ENERGY PARTNERSHIPS FORUM

September 18, 2006

Engines and Energy Conversion Laboratory Lawn – Held in Covered Tents
Colorado State University

8:00 AM	Registration & Networking; Exhibits open
9:00-9:05 AM	Colorado's Importance in Clean Energy Drew Bolin, Director, Colorado Governor's Office of Energy Management & Conservation
9:05-9:10 AM	Welcome to The City of Fort Collins Doug Hutchinson, Mayor, The City of Fort Collins
9:10-9:15 AM	Welcome to Colorado State University Dr. Tony Frank, Provost and Senior Vice President of CSU
9:15-9:30 AM	The Exciting Future of Engines and Energy Technologies Dr. Bryan Willson, Professor of Mechanical Engineering and Founder of Engines Lab at CSU
9:30-9:45 AM	New Approaches to More Efficient Solar Energy Conversion Dr. Carl Koval, Faculty Director, Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry, University of Colorado
9:45-10:00 AM	Mines, Energy and the Collaboratory Dr. Dag Nummendal, Director, Colorado Energy Research Institute, Colorado School of Mines
10:00-10:15 AM	What's Hot at NREL Dr. Stan Bull, Associate Director for Renewable Electricity Science and Technology, National Renewable Energy Laboratory (NREL)
10:15-10:25 AM	Q & A and Short Break
10:25-10:40 AM	Balanced Energy Capital of the West Pat Keegan, Executive Director, The Colorado Energy Science Center and E-Star Colorado; Representing Metro Denver Economic Development Corporation
10:40-10:55 AM	Jeffco is "Energizing Tomorrow" with Biomass Wade Yates, Special Projects Coordinator, Jefferson County Administrator's Office
10:55-11:10 AM	Northern Colorado's Clean Energy Cluster Jacob Castillo, Vice President of Northern Colorado Economic Development Corporation
11:10-11:15 AM	Q & A
11:20-12:30 PM	Tour of Engines Lab and Technology Displays
12:30 PM	End of Event; Exhibits Closed